Project Scope

- Space planning & design
- Project management
- Boardroom and meeting area
- Breakout area
- Silicon glazing

Group Companies Involved

- Meridian Interiors Ltd

Our Solution

After detailed discussion around the client brief, and Walters Snowdon's approval of Meridian Interior's space plans and visuals, the design team then undertook an extensive office refurbishment, creating a boardroom, meeting room, breakout area and two open-plan workspace areas. The project equated to £19,000.

A particular feature of the office redesign was the use of white silicone glazing alongside full-height doors, with a banded manifestation design on the glass.

“ In true advertising agency style we worked to some pressured deadlines when it came to moving offices and restyling the interior. Thankfully Meridian advised expertly on all issues and met our brief with creativity to deliver a professional environment that we are extremely proud of.
